JACKSON COUNTY BOY AT CAMP UPTON LONG ISLAND, N. Y.

Says Red Cross and Y. M.
C. A. Are The Soldiers
Best Friends.

Camp Upton,
Long Island, N. Y.
April, 19, 1918

Editor Sentinel:

If you will make room for me in your paper I write again, as it has been some time since I visited the columns of the Sentinel. I was in the Base Hospital at Camp Gordon when I last wrote and tonight I write from Camp Upton, Long Island.

We left Camp Gordon Sunday afternoon, April 14, and arrived here Tuesday night, April 16. We sure had an enjoyable trip and one to be long remembered.

We ate breakfast in South Carolina Monday, traveling all day thru that state, making an occasional stop. Our first stop of length was at Danville, Va. Here we were greeted by the Red Cross ladies who treated us to apples, candy, postcards and stamps and cigars, which were greatly appreciated by all the soldiers. The next stop we made was Lynchburg, Va. Here again we were greeted by the Red Cross ladies, and right here I want to say that the Red Cross is the most beneficial organization on earth. They are soldiers best friend and their service is to all alike. Soon after leaving Lynchburg the Blue Ridge mountains made their appearance, with their white caps gleaming in the sunlight, making a most picturesque scene. We boys greeted them with the song that relates to them. The next point of interest was the beautiful river that our first president pitched pebbles in and played upon its banks in his childhood days. It was in the dead of night and the view that greeted my eyes was the grandest my eyes ever beheld. Electric lights of different colors lined the river banks casting their reflections in the water, making a scene of surpassing beauty. We soon after rolled into Washington, D. C., which was another beautiful sight to us boys. Our stop there was short and we proceeded on to Philadelphia, arriving there Tuesday morning. Here we were greeted by the blowing of whistles and every widow was crowded with people waving us welcome. We soon arrived at New York, where again we were greeted with much demonstrations. We crossed the Hudson and up the East river passing under the great bridge that connects New York City and Brooklyn and in a short time arrived at Camp Upton, where we will be in training until ordered overseas.

There are only four Tennessee boys in my company the others are Northern boys. I am real sorry that my Northern comrades have the ideas that they do of we Southern boys. They really think we don't know when Sunday comes. The South is my home and I will defend her, and I thank God for my Southern blood.

Our parents and all others should be willing at all times to aid the Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. They are our best friends, and not only we boys, but the dear homeless children of foreign nations. One of the most touching things that I have ever saw, was a real picture of the homeless children of Belgium being taken care of by the American Red Cross. Tears were streaming down many of our cheeks as we viewed the pictures.

I had the pleasure of seeing some of the Jackson county boys before I left Camp Gordon, and I was glad to see them, as they me most of the latest of the county.

I trust that I will be able to tell you lots more after we get Kaiser Bill, as that is what we are going to do.

With best wishes to the Sentinel and its readers.

Berea, Ky.

Berea College,
April 20, 1918.

Dear Sentinel:

As I have been silent for some time, will come again giving some of the news of Berea.

Everything is just lovely here now. We are having some pleasant cool days. April 9, we were given a surprise by awaking and finding that the ground was white with snow. It made us think that winter had just begun. It seems that it is going to snow all summer.

School is progressing nicely with a very large attendance.

A holiday was celebrated April 13, in honor of Dr. Pearson, a donor of the Normal boys dormitory. It was a very interesting scene to view the town while all the different departments were marching and carrying their banner to represent each department.

We met at Ladies Hall formed our lines and marched over to the chapel. There we had the pleasure of listening to an interesting lecture given by all the oldest citizens of Berea who were well acquainted with the earliest settlers, teachers, secretaries, presidents and other history of the college.

At 2 o'clock p. m. a ball game was given on the athletic field between college and academy which lasted until 4 o'clock. Then departmental socials were given from 7 to 9 o'clock. This was for the students to meet and become more acquainted with the faculty.

Several of the normal boys went on an all day walking party Sunday.

An enjoyable walking party which took place April 8, consisted of the following couples: Kate Anderson and Chester McWilliams, Violet Cornelius and Chas. Ferrell, Mary Long and Elijah Cunduff, Ree Oglehart and Jas. Davis, Mattie Morgan and Elijah Armstrong, Ruby Nichols and Harry Spink, Octavia Crider and Dave Farmer, Verna Crider and Milburn Hall, Helen Wyte and Chester Brown, Nellie Spurlock and Joe Morgan, chaperons Misses McDonald, Elvene Jordan.

There are only six more weeks of school and then we must all leave here for home or somewhere else. Perhaps several of the boys will leave for military service and many others will do their duty on the farm.

Mr. Crane from Camp Taylor, formerly a well known student of this place, visited here this week on a few days furlough,

Why Buy Liberty Bonds?

Why do you save to build a home? It is usually cheaper to rent.

Why do you plan to give your children a good education. Will you get any money dividends from that?

Why do you pay fire-insurance premiums and life-insurance premiums? You personally will get little if anything out of that.

Why do you call a doctor quickly if the children are ailing? You don't stop to think whether you can afford it. Do you?

None of these expenditures are what we call good investments. They don't pay in money, yet all pay the finest of dividends.

Liberty bonds represent the home, the school, the children; they represent all the great deeds of our fathers and grandfathers; they represent Bunker Hill and Yorktown and Gettysburg; they represent the blessed freedom under which we live, and they also represent the order that makes freedom blessed.

They represent the boys "Over There." They represent devastated Belgium and homeless Serbia and murdered Armenia.

They are the defense that shall keep from our shores the monster criminals who outraged the women of Belgium and northern France and made the men slaves.

They represent the strength that shall restore Belgium and rebuild France and avenge Serbia.

They are the voice of those who are too young or too old or too weak to fight; they are the sword of the women and the cannon of the children; they are the voice of a free people calling to cruelly wronged, freedom-loving men and bringing them succor.

Buy them? Of course you will buy them. You'll borrow to buy them.

You don't need to be urged. You should be ashamed to go home to your children if you did not buy them. The rate of interest is important, but not of the first importance. They would pay, they would appeal to you, if they bore no interest whatever.

Add to the rate of interest the dividends they pay in self-interest, in safety, in public order, in liberty and law and you have a larger return than you receive from any other thing you own.

They will never become "scraps of paper."

They are the best secured investment in the world. You stand behind them—You should buy them.

The owner of a Liberty loan bond holds a written tangible evidence of being a preferred stockholder in the United States, the greatest, the most glorious, the most honorable, and the most successful corporation in the world. He holds the certificate of being a citizen willing to support his Government and to lend money to his country when it needs and calls for it.

Liberty loan bonds, like the love and possession of liberty, should be in every Jackson County home. They are being used to maintain our own liberty and honor, to make our homes worth living in and fighting for. They are something more than a money investment; they are an investment in the safety and security and perpetuation of American institutions and democratic ideals, the very things that Jefferson and Washington built into the foundations of this country and which must be preserved in any life worth living.

Several of the students will attend the K. E. A. meeting at Louisville, beginning April 24, continuing thruout the week. They will also visit the camps while there.

With best wishes to all Sentinel readers and most especially the soldiers.

A Jackson County Girl.

"The Kaiser's Talk To Hell"

The Kaiser called the Devil up On the telephone one day The girl at Central listened to All they had to say.

"Hello" she heard the Kaiser's voice "Is old man Satan home? Just tell him this is Kaiser Bill That wants him on the phone."

The Devil said, "Hello" to Bill, And Bill said, "How are you? I'm running here a Hell on earth, So tell me what to do."

"What can I do?" the Devil said. "My dear old Kaiser Bill? If there's a thing that I can do

To help you sure I will."

The Kaiser said, "Now, listen. And I will try to tell The way that I am running On earth a modern Hell."

My army went through Belgium, Shooting women and children down, We tore up all her country, And blew up all her towns.

My Zepps dropped bombs on cities, Killing both the old and young, And those the Zeppelins didn't get Were taken out and hung.

I started out for Paris, With the aid of poisonous gas, The Belgians, darn 'em, stopped us, And would not let us pass.

My submarines are Devils, Why, you should see them fight! They go sneaking through the sea, And sink a ship at sight.

I was running things to suit me,

Till a year or so ago, When a man called Woodrow Wilson Wrote me to go more slow.

He said to me "Dear William, We don't want to make you sore, So be sure to tell your U-boats To sink our ships no more.

We have told you for the last time, So Dear Bill, it's up to you, And if you do not stop it, You have got to fight us, too.

I did not listen to him And he's coming after me, With a million Yankee soldiers From their homes across the sea.

Now, that's why I called you, Satan, For I want advice from you, I knew that you would tell me Just what I ought to do."

"My dear old Kaiser William, There's not much for me to tell, For the Yanks will make it hotter Than I can for you in Hell.

I've been a mean old Devil, But not half so mean as you. And the minute that you get here, I will give the job to you.

I'll be ready for your coming. And I'll make the fires all bright, And I'll have your rooms all ready When the Yanks begin to fight.

For the boys in Blue will get you, I have nothing more to tell, Hang up the phone and get your hat, And meet me here in Hell."

Report Suspicious and Disloyal Acts.

Charleston, S. C., April 19, 1918—(Special)—It has come to the notice of this office that many people fail to report suspicious and disloyal acts or manifestations of sympathy for the enemy because of uncertainty as to the proper officials to approach.

It is very important that the Government should have the assistance of all citizens in detecting enemy propaganda or suspicious activities of individuals, and you will do a service in notifying your friends that any communication addressed to "Intelligence Officer, Headquarters Southeastern Department, Charleston, S. C." will receive attention and be transmitted to the proper official of the Government for investigation. The names of informants will not be divulged and there need be no fear, on the part of anybody, of getting into trouble in case suspicions prove to be unfounded.

Informants should indicate the nature and source of their information, as well as the time and place.

Important Farmers Meeting.

H. K. Bryson, Commissioner of Agriculture, is urging all sheep breeders to attend the meeting at the capitol on Tuesday, April 30. The meeting is for the purpose of arranging for a larger wool production in this state.

"All sheep breeders' associations are requested to send representatives to this meeting," said Mr. Bryson. "All wool and lamb clubs should also be represented. In counties where there are no organizations meetings of the individual sheep growers should be held and arrangements made to send delegates; should there not be time sufficient for such local meetings then each and every grower is urged to be present at the capitol on that date, in order that they may have the benefit of the information which will then be given out. The grower can in turn impart this information to others of his neighborhood."

"Wool especially for clothing the soldiers, is a matter of most serious import. It must be produced for them, and it will require organized effort to replenish the depleted wool stock of America."

"This is a very urgent matter, and it is expected that the sheep breeders of the State will fully realize its importance. A large and thoroughly representative attendance is expected. Impress the date upon your mind and make arrangements to be present."
